

AKS – MINOAN PALACE

General description

The AKS MINOAN PALACE complex, owned by the “AKS Hotels & Bungalows” chain, is an A’ category hotel with 127 sea view rooms, situated in Amnissos area at Heraklion Crete.

Projects

Study, drawing and materialization of central solar system for the daily use of hot water for client rooms, kitchen and public places of the hotel.

Installation:

- ✓ 135 flat selective solar collectors (Chromagen CR-120 Central) of 380,7 m² area situated on the roof of the main building.
- ✓ 4 hot water storage tanks of total capacity 12.000lt in the central machinery room.
- ✓ Building Management System (BMS) for the control of the entire installation of heating energy production and energy saving, through monitors and graphic data.

